

BRYAN POPIN

("Pop - In")

- LIVE Introduction

Little Boy Wonder Music & Flaydo Music, Recording Artist

Born and raised in Middletown, New Jersey, Popin was first introduced to his signature instrument, the piano, at age 5. His mother was a choir director at a local church and was the source of his immediate interest in spiritual hymns and soulful music.

A piano protégé by his early teens, legendary singer Stevie Wonder gave him the nickname, "Little Boy Wonder." Bryan Popin has continued to impress with his songwriting, keyboard skills and vocal flow, appearing with Bishop TD Jakes numerous times and featured at both MegaFest and Bishop Jakes' Pastors & Leader's Conference. Most recently Popin was seen on Tye Tribbett's new TV show on BET, "Joyful Noise" and performed his timely single, "Such A Time As This." He's written with R&B legend Chaka Khan, opened for Tye Tribbett, Israel Houghton, Deitrick Haddon, Tasha Page-Lockhart, Jermaine Dolly, Donnie McClurkin, Marvin Sapp and more AND at the height of their popularity, Justin Timberlake's *NSYNC recorded one of Popin's songs for their multi-platinum album, Celebrity.

As Popin has seen both the heights of fame and prosperity, he has also experienced the lows and heartache of financial hardship, rejection, insecurities and personal drought. Through each of these seasons, he has had to learn to trust and rely on his faith and spiritual upbringing.

Bryan Popin has released the following singles to gospel radio:

"I CAN MAKE IT" (#19 on Billboard Gospel Radio Chart), "AWESOME GOD", "SUCH A TIME AS THIS" (#17 on Billboard Gospel Radio Chart), "I GOT OUT" (Currently Top 10 on Billboard Gospel Radio Chart).

Creating a buzz, is Popin's new upbeat single "I GOT OUT" bringing back that old-school church choir sound. Produced by Bryan Popin and AyRon Lewis (Kirk Franklin, James Fortune, Bishop Morton Jr.) and joining on "I GOT OUT" is Cece Winan's Born Again Church Choir, directed by Ron Smith out of Nashville, TN.

"I GOT OUT" is Available Now on iTunes, GooglePlay and everywhere digital music is sold. Popin's highly anticipated 2017 full project is slated to release later this year on his joint venture imprint label between Little Boy Wonder Music and Flaydo Music.
