

BRYAN POPIN ("Pop-In")

- LIVE Introduction Bullet Points

Little Boy Wonder Music & Flaydo Music, Recording Artist

- Born and raised in Middletown, New Jersey, Bryan Popin was first introduced to his signature instrument, the piano, at age 5. His mother, a choir director at a local church, was the source of his immediate interest in spiritual hymns and classical piano while his father introduced him to soul music.
- A piano protégé by his early teens, the legendary singer Stevie Wonder gave him the nickname, "Little Boy Wonder."
- With songs like "I CAN MAKE IT", "SUCH A TIME AS THIS", "I GOT OUT" and most recently "STEP IN THE NAME", Popin continues to impress with his songwriting, keyboard skills and vocal flow.
- "I GOT OUT" the Album, released on July 21, 2017 under his own imprint record label Little Boy Wonder Music, garnered Popin his first #1 on Billboard topping the sales charts in both the Top Christian and Gospel Album categories.
- His single "I GOT OUT" brought back that old-school church choir sound and peaked at #4 on Billboard's Gospel Radio Chart.
- Back with a brand new single & video, "STEP IN THE NAME" in only 3 weeks has garnered over 1 million+ audio/visual streams. Popin's heart is to bring people together with a lil feel good music. Joining hands and making cameo appearances in the video with Popin are Artists & Celebrities DeVon Franklin, Meagan Good, Jonathan McReynolds, Travis Greene, David Mann & more.
- He's written with R&B legend Chaka Khan, opened for Tamela Mann, Tye Tribbett, Israel Houghton, Deitrick Haddon, Travis Greene, Tasha Page-Lockhart, Jermaine Dolly, Donnie McClurkin, Marvin Sapp and others. At the height of their popularity, Justin Timberlake's *NSYNC recorded 1 of Popin's songs for their multi-platinum album Celebrity and performed the song during their final stadium tour.
- "I GOT OUT" the *Deluxe Edition Album is Available exclusively at Walmart, iTunes, Google Play, Amazon Music and everywhere digital music is sold.
